

STERLING SCHOLAR

Representing Logan High as a Sterling Scholar is a great honor which requires a great deal of time and dedication. We are looking for students who excel in the areas of scholarship, leadership, and citizenship.

Sterling Scholar applications must include the following information:

1. A cover letter to the Sterling Scholar committee explaining why you would like to be a Sterling Scholar and why you would be the best candidate to represent the school.
2. A one-page letter of recommendation by any teacher/instructor in your chosen category.
3. A one page resume outlining your qualifications in your chosen category. Qualifications include overall scholarship, category scholarship, leadership, community service/ citizenship.
4. A Logan High grade transcript (should include class rank, cumulative GPA, and any test results).
5. ACT, SAT, PSAT, and any other test results available.

Applications are due Friday, April 29, and should be turned to Mrs. Stallings. Applications will only be accepted if they are done well and are complete. If you apply in more than one category, you must submit complete applications for each category.

Categories

- | | |
|-------------------------|---|
| English | For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the following areas: creative writing, English, journalism, literature and related subjects. |
| Mathematics | For scholarship and achievement in mathematics and related areas. Scholars may exhibit outstanding records in mathematics competitions and evidence of potential contributions to mathematics knowledge. |
| Social Science | For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the following areas: American government, geography, history, economics, social issues, world affairs and/or related subjects. Scholars should have a broad background in the social sciences and demonstrate, exemplify and practice good citizenship. |
| Science | For scholarship and achievement in advanced work, inventiveness or outstanding service in one or more of the following areas: biology, chemistry, engineering, physics, health science, science and related subjects. |
| Foreign Language | For outstanding scholarship and persistence in the study of a foreign language. Students should have made unusual contributions to the field of foreign language study or demonstrated increasing interest in such studies at their school. |

- Computer Technology For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the following areas: computer programming, interfacing, networking, repair, construction, design and illustration, media and multi-media, or other related fields.
- Trade and Technical For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the following areas: agriculture sciences, automotive services, cabinetmaking/millwork, carpentry, cosmetology/barbering, drafting/CADD, graphics/printing technology, law enforcement, machinist technician/CNC, welding, film making and other related fields.
- Family and Consumer Sciences For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the following areas: child development and care, interior design, family living, food and nutrition, culinary arts, clothing and fashion and other life skills.
- Business and Marketing For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the following areas: business management, accounting, data processing, word processing and other fields related to business occupations.
- Speech/Drama For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the following areas: debate, drama, musical theater, theater, public speaking or other forensic events.
- Visual Arts For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the following areas: drawing, artistic photography, commercial art, mixed media, graphic art, painting, sculpture and related fields.
- Music For scholarship and achievement in one or more of the areas of music. Exceptional talent in composition, vocal or instrumental music will be considered, but service to school and community through this talent also will be among determining qualifications.
- Dance For demonstrating exceptional skill, achievement and creative expression in artistic dance (ballroom dance included). Applications should include training received, dances choreographed, major performances and dance service rendered to the school and community. Applicants should be prepared to demonstrate their technique and choreographic skills by performing a self-choreographed solo composition, approximately two minutes in length.